Each breeder must have an individual herd prefix consisting of three or four letters. The herd prefix may not contain numbers or symbols. Please specify choices below, in order of preference. AGA assigns the first available choice. If all choices are already assigned or if spaces are blank, AGA will assign a herd prefix to your membership.

To keep your membership current, dues and herd assessments must be paid annually. Annual membership dues are $130 (United States), $150 (Canadian and Mexican), and $175 (all other countries). For federal income purposes, membership dues and contributions to the American Gelbvieh Association are deductible as business expenses, not as charitable contributions.

- I have enclosed a check to cover dues. Call me for credit card information to cover dues.

All memberships include a one-year subscription to Gelbvieh World, AGA's official publication, as well as a bi-weekly e-newsletter. Please indicate which of the following methods you prefer to receive your monthly subscription to Gelbvieh World.
