American Gelbvieh Association Internship Announcement:

The American Gelbvieh Association (AGA) is offering a paid Summer 2026 Internship designed for motivated students who want to gain real-world experience in the beef industry. This opportunity represents more than just an internship, it's a chance to travel, network with industry leaders, and play a key role in some of the nation's most exciting junior cattle events.

Location: AGA Headquarters | Lincoln, NE

Duration: May-August 2026 (Flexible start and end times)

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist with preparations for the American Gelbvieh Junior Association Junior Classic Show including entries, registrations, contests, exhibitor outreach, volunteer coordination, etc.
- Attend Junior Classic in Grand Island, Nebraska, June 21 – 26, 2026, and responsible for assisting with contests, point tabulation and other various duties as deemed necessary.
- Assist AGA members and customers with submitting, recording, and reporting data, and general member services via phone, email, and in-person.
- Assist marketing and communication teams with communications efforts and messaging.
- Additional responsibilities may be included throughout the internship as opportunities arise.
- Attend the Eastern and Western Regional Classic shows (dates and locations to be determined) and assist with necessary preparations and events activities.
- Submit a print ready article for the Gelbvieh World on a topic to be mutually determined.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Beef cattle or livestock background (preferred).
- Agriculture major (preferred).
- Self-motivated, professional, and detail oriented.
- Interest and ability to work effectively with AGA members and customers.
- Professional verbal and written communication skills.
- Ability to work independently and in a team environment.
- Computer skills including Microsoft Office programs (Word, Excel, Power Point, etc.).

NOTE:

- Interns are responsible for their own housing.

Interested candidates may send cover letter, resume, and three professional references no later December 5, 2025 to:
